CALENDAR - SAINTS OF THE WEEK

10th February – St Scholastica: Born in Umbria, Italy around 480; she embraced religious life in 5th Century Italy and like her brother St Benedict, and the Rule he inspired, she became a religious foundress of Benedictine nuns, who live their particular vocation. She ended her days at Monte Cassino in the year 547.

11th February – Our Lady of Lourdes: We remember the apparitions to Bernadette Soubirous near Lourdes in France in the grotto of Massabielle of the Immaculate Mother Mary in 1858 with the message of penance, healing and pilgrimage. That day is now a universal day of prayer for the sick.

14th February – St Cyril and St Methodius: brothers and missionaries, who carried the Gospel into the Slavonic countries: they translated the liturgical books into the Slavonic language (inventing a new script, Cyrillic, to do so). Cyril died in 869, Methodius in 885.

14th February – St Valentine: early Roman priest and martyr.

THOUGHTS

From the Society of St Gregory

The theme of light is present in the Mass for this Fifth Sunday of the Church's Calendar as Christ encourages us to perform loving acts of service as a means of evangelising - spreading the Good News.

These acts bring much light and goodness into the world that people will know that they come from God.

It is by reflecting the light of Jesus Christ that we will shine out to others.

Later this week on 11th February, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, the Church keeps its Annual World Day of Prayer for the Sick. Those who care for the sick certainly show Christ's light.

In today's Gospel the people fasting pointlessly described in the First Reading this Sunday are like salt which has lost its saltiness. Matthew in his Gospel writes that the disciples, however, are expected to be both salt and light to the world, visible and effective without grandstanding. This is surely a message for our own day; the world has many troubles, some completely overwhelming but we are called to do what we can to make a real difference to others.
