Response to the Psalm: I will leave this place and go to my father.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.

Alleluia!

CALENDAR & SAINTS OF THE WEEK

13th Sept – St John Chrysostom: John was given the nickname Chrysostom ("Golden Mouth") because of his excellent preaching, and the many exhortations and catecheses he produced; he was born in Antioch in 349 and after a glowing career as priest was made Bishop of Constantinople in 397. Here, because of his preaching and care for justice, he faced opposition from the imperial court (mainly the Empress Eudoxia) and was twice exiled. He died in exile in 407.

14th Sept – Feast of the Holy Cross

15th Sept – Our Lady of Sorrows

16th Sept – SS Cornelius and Cyprian: both men lived in a time of great turbulence in the Church: they were at the forefront of the debate on reconciling those who had denied the faith under persecution. Together Cornelius and Cyprian struck a middle course and guided the Church onward by their writing and preaching. Cornelius died in exile in 253; Cyprian was martyred in 258.

17th Sept – Hildegard of Bingen: born in Germany 1098 and in 1115 entered the Benedictine Order. In 1150 she founded the abbey of Rupertsberg, near Bingen, where she became Abbess. She was an expert in many fields including science and music. A great mystic to whom Princes and Popes turned for advice.

THOUGHTS FOR THIS SUNDAY

This weekend we hear a message of pardon and reconciliation expressed in several parables - the lost sheep, the lost coin and the lost son (last heard on the Fourth Sunday of Lent this year).

We call the story in the third parable the story of the Prodigal Son. Perhaps it should be rather thought of as - the Tale of the Prodigal

Father because the real hero of the story is the father who loves his son beyond all reason. He indulges the son's selfish wishes, mourns his departure and, when he sees the crestfallen boy returning, doesn't wait, but runs out to meet him.

Nothing is too good for this celebration; a ring (symbol of household authority), the best robe (remember the story of Joseph?) and it goes without saying there has to be a bean feast.

Perhaps it was Luke who added the detail about the elder son? Who knows? Because one can imagine that by the time the Gospel was written, the largely Jewish community of Christians were complaining about the Gentile newcomers into the Christian Community being given such an easy ride!

Luke uses the story to remind them God's love isn't measurable and are reminded of the unalterable truth that God's love never changes.

This message of the story is equally applicable today.
